Amy Phillips, a graduate of the University of Wyoming Anthropology Department, has agreed to be our new Education and Programs Manager! Amy will enhance our outreach program, coordinate events, lead workshops and clinics, improve our visitors’ experiences, and ensure that exhibits and programming meets our educational objectives. She will also manage the education collections and collaborate with fellow staff on various other projects.

Before arriving in early April, Amy is completing an internship in the curatorial department at the State Museum in Cheyenne. She also serves as Archives Aide at the American Heritage Center and volunteered as a Lab Assistant under UW’s Dr. Todd Surovell.

In her spare time, Amy enjoys fly fishing. She also served as Secretary and Vice President of “Fish N’ Chicks,” a club of female fly fishing enthusiasts. We hope to incorporate some of her fishing skills into exciting programming for our summer tourists and local folks. Obviously, she is a great addition to the museum staff!

DID YOU KNOW?...

~Researched by: Kathleen Holtzer~

I would also like to inform the folks who have been contributing to our gravestone fund that we have $1245.00 in our account the last I heard. We have George Andres, John A Donald, Thomas Foley, Carl Powell, John Reynolds, and Ted Sell to get stones for. 5 of them for sure should merit military stones, I’m not really certain of the other one. Then of course we still have Milt Busby to get a stone for. This has been the most gratifying thing I think I have ever been a part of, and I wish that someone in every town would get on the stick and check out all their vets! Too many veterans are going unremarked, and I think that is awful. So many of them lie in cemeteries with not even a marker. They deserve much more than that, and I am happy to be a part of remembering ours.
