Mystery Artifact of the Week

This Wyoming cigar box is a puzzle. While the cigars were manufactured by the Wyoming Cigar Company in factory number 809, the staff could not find any records of a Wyoming Cigar Company existing in the State of Wyoming. We did learn that the label inside the box was printed by O.L. Schwencke in 1905. The image is made from a series of small dots which means the image was printed in the 20th century, not the 19th century. Originally, this box contained Colorado (the color), Perfecto (the shape) cigars.
